Theme of the Week

Self-control

(Being able to control your actions, feelings, and emotions.) Practicing self-control is like a traffic light. You have to STOP doing something wrong, use CAUTION if you are not sure it is right, and GO AHEAD with confidence when you are doing the right thing.

Self-control means:

- I will think before I act.
- I will control my temper.
- I will respect others and their belongings.
- I will sit still and be quiet when necessary.
- I will build healthy habits.

Try this experiment in self-control with your children:
